

Cork County Committee Bulletin 04/03/2025

The third County Committee meeting of 2025 took place on Tuesday, March 4th at SuperValu Páirc Uí Chaoimh.

Presentation

- John Brennan, Operations Manager of the Munster Council, opened the meeting with a presentation on the Corporate Trustee Model within the GAA. A copy of his presentation will be circulated alongside this bulletin.

Management Committee

- The Progress Report, as circulated in advance, including Inter-County transfers and gradings was approved.
- Approval was granted for the Demographics, Sustainability, County Teams Management & Panel, Cultural, Hearings, and Divisional Committees for 2025.
- The Rúnaí provided a comprehensive report on the Congress Motions.
- Irish and Cultural Officer, John O'Mahony reminded clubs of the upcoming Scór Sinsear Finals in Ovens on March 7th.

Games Administration

- Inter-Club Transfers were finalised.
- A new Independent Teams workgroup, chaired by Michael O'Mahony was approved to conduct a full review of all matters related to independent teams.

Club Developments

- Approval was granted for various development projects at St. Michael's, St. James', Aghada, Éire Óg, Dripsey, and Bishopstown.

Inter-County Teams

- Upcoming Inter-County games at SuperValu Páirc Uí Chaoimh were noted.
- The Stewards and Event Team were thanked for their efforts during the recent busy period at the stadium.
- Delegates raised matters such as unallocated seating for League games, Inter-County fixture scheduling and the possibility of a discussion on Gaelic Football within the County at a future County Committee meeting. The Chairperson noted that a review all such issues will take place upon the exit of teams from their respective Championships.

Commercial / Finance / Facilities

- A reminder that the first draw of the Rebels' Bounty take place on March 31st.
- The inaugural Cork Super Cup, Celtic v Cork City FC will take place on July 8th, with tickets going on sale on Friday.
- Maintenance upgrades have been carried out at the Premium Level
- PepsiCo were onboard for 2025 as the Positive Action partner for the SuperValu Páirc Uí Chaoimh.
- One Cork Dublin Luncheon takes place on April 4th in the Clayton Hotel, Burlington Road.
- One Cork Worldwide was launched for 2025, with Finbarr Nyhan leading the co-ordination of its membership.

Central Council Report

- The Report, as circulated previously, was presented by the Central Council Delegate, Marc Sheehan.

AOB

- Various matters were briefly referenced under AOB, such as a Child Welfare questionnaire, two Games Development Co-Ordinator job opportunities recently advertised as well as one club fixture issue.