

Cork County Committee Bulletin 08/04/2025

The fourth County Committee meeting of 2025 took place on Tuesday, April 8th at SuperValu Páirc Uí Chaoimh.

Management Committee

- The Progress Report, as circulated in advance, including Inter-County results, transfers and gradings was approved.
- Approval was granted for the Audit and Risk, Planning and Training and Safety and Facilities, PR and IT Committees for 2025.
- Cian O'Brien, Glen Rovers, was appointed to the newly created role of Digital Content Lead.
- Irish and Cultural Officer, John O'Mahony reminded clubs of the upcoming dates for Scór.
- Children's Officer, Donal McCarthy also reminded clubs of the upcoming Risk Assessment deadlines.

Club Developments

- Approval was granted for development projects at Macroom and Ballyhea.

Inter-County Teams

- Upcoming Inter-County games at SuperValu Páirc Uí Chaoimh were noted.
- The Stewards and Event Team were thanked for their efforts during the recent busy period at the stadium.
- Significant frustration was expressed by Delegates in relation to the County's allocation of tickets for the National Hurling League Final. Discussion followed on the best method of circulating tickets thereafter.

Commercial / Finance / Facilities

- Special thanks were expressed to all those involved in the recent One Cork Dublin Luncheon which took place on April 4th in the Clayton Hotel, Burlington Road.
- It was noted that approval was granted at a recent Central Council meeting for upcoming FAI WNT and Munster Rugby fixtures.
- The first three draws of the 2025 Rebels' Bounty took place on March 31st, it was noted that over 30,000 members have now joined.

Central Council Report

- The Report, as circulated previously, was presented by the Central Council Delegate, Marc Sheehan.

Munster Council Report

- The Report, as circulated previously, was presented by the Munster Council Delegate, Joseph Blake.

AOB

- A reminder was given to clubs on the upcoming Cork GAA Clean-Up Day on April 12th.

Votes of Sympathy

- Tributes were paid to Ger Fitzgerald, Canon Collie O'Donovan and Darragh McCarthy, Middleton, Brendan Driscoll, Ballincollig, and Pat Fenton, Kildorrery along with many others on their recent passing.